

Reject the NAB's petition 04-160. Broadcasters don't own the weather, so they don't own weather reports. Subscribers to satellite services are entitled to the content they pay for. Broadcasters should take the hint from ever-increasing numbers of subscribers, cut down on the booze and personal injury attorney ads and improve their garbage product.